Air Force chief: Test weapons on Americans

Test nonlethal weapons on U.S. citizens, official says

LOLITA C. BALDOR, Associated Press Published 5:30 am CDT, Wednesday, September 13, 2006

WASHINGTON - Nonlethal weapons such as high-power microwave devices should be used on American citizens in crowd-control situations before they are used on the battlefield, the Air Force secretary said Tuesday.

Domestic use would make it easier to avoid questions in the international community over any possible safety concerns, said Air Force Secretary Michael Wynne.
