VIRTUAL FINAL COMPETITION EVENT

Featuring Finalists

Howard University
Washington, D.C.

Middlebury Institute of International Studies
Monterey, CA

University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC

This student-led initiative empowers university teams to develop and deploy dynamic projects to prevent targeted violence and terrorism. Invent2Prevent also encourages optimizing the sustainability of student projects to continue on beyond the program term. Please join us as the top three Invent2Prevent teams compete for $9,000 in program awards. Students will present to a panel of distinguished judges who will announce the winners live!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2022

1:00 PM EST - 3:00 PM EST
