Hi--

Just to let you know the Chen Limings--who seem to have control over our electricity outlets and our plug points and our fuses--are currently activating a motor in the framework of the fridge, alternately in the freezer area and in the fridge area to make a loud humming sound--major harassment. No way I can find to end this sound. Opening the door seemed to make it work on occasion, the sound came to a stop as it seemed a motor was being wound down. These are criminals parked next door running sociological and psychological harassment experiments while using RF HPM and other tech on my body--as they did on Sophie for years from right across her room. They are criminals who have been Notice'd many times. They have also attacked our foliage this spring. Each day I see evidence of new radiation burns from their nsEP generators and radiation devices. Anyway this is an issue for National Grid. National Grid needs to be sued. They have handed over controls of our electrical circuits to this house and occupants.

I do not have the Account Number for our electricity since one of the last Paul-clones to leave in the summer of 2023 took your big plastic box with all the bills with him, Unless that was you. Can you find our account number and call National Grid please and let them know our fridge is being accessed and destroyed from outside, in fact from the house full of mercenaries next door? Thanks. They need to fix this criminality--we need to be in charge of our own fuses and outlets, not the Chen Limings or the Mazzeos or anyone else.

Meanwhile the Canned Hunters on the Mazzeo side have several new criminals moved in here who are all using cyberhacking and biohacking tech with ease on my pc and body. Men who need to be imprisoned for life. They have cut our walnut and hawthorn trees and irradiated the hawthorn and the new gold cypress I bought last winter--they take pleasure in burning and killing trees it seems. They are deranged.

Anyway, hope you saw the letter to the AG written post my comprehension of what happened in December 2022--the man resembling you who did that to me has been working with this cartel who were working very hard to get me into a Maritime courtroom--it will never happen, and I am continuing to expose these criminals. This is Organized Crime, and it runs Medical Fraud, using Doctors, Psychs, and deadbeat Police.

For your part, you need to send a Letter of Notice to the FBI and return home with Sophie. I need Sophie to call and Facetime me and come home stat. --Ramola
